Are you interested in becoming a member of Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club?

Our Club is dedicated to the sport of Obedience Training, including Rally, Nose Work, and Beginning Agility and having fun with our dogs. Our mission is to provide the Bay Area quality dog training classes for pet behavior and/or competition. All breeds, mixed or purebred and all ages, puppy through advanced, are welcomed in a positive, fun environment. American Kennel Club (AKC) sanctioned events and other Club activities are also hosted by the membership.

Benefits of Membership

- New Friends with a Common Interest
- Training Class Discounts
- Seminars, such as Canine First Aid, Grooming, Massage Therapy
- Room Rental
- Award Recognition

How do you become a member? Ask your class instructor or assistant for an application or come to one of our monthly meetings (2nd Wednesday of every month at 7:30 pm (7pm to socialize) excluding August BBQ and December Holiday Party). Complete one training course sponsored by the club prior to applying. We offer three types of membership:

- Regular Member
Ages eighteen or older, entitled to all rights and member privileges, including voting. Attend two meetings of the club as a guest within a four month period.
- Junior Member
Ages twelve to eighteen years, entitled to all rights and member privileges, excluding voting and holding office. Attend two meetings of the club as a guest within a four month period.
- Associate Member
Ages eighteen or older, entitled to all rights and member privileges, excluding voting and holding office. Meeting attendance is not required.

Member Responsibilities - We are an active Club and rely on our members' volunteer efforts to support our activities. It is a great way to meet fellow members and dog lovers. Volunteer to be a ring steward at our AKC Trial or Match, help decorate the training room for a holiday or help publish our monthly newsletter, Tales. We have a variety of jobs available.

We hope to see you at a meeting soon!
